Once just wasn't enough. That's why Cliff Castle Casino-Hotel is doing it again this year. It's the last party of the decade-and The Party's at the Castle.

Don't miss live entertainment on both the porte cochere and in Dragonfly Lounge, food served from 9 to 11 p.m., a champagne toast, casino gifts, hot seat cash prizes and a chance to win $100,000 by spinning the big prize wheel.

Reservations are recommended; space is limited. Reserve your tickets by Dec. 30 at $25 per person, plus receive five free raffle tickets for the wheel spin. $35 per person the day of the party. Call the Castle Club at (928) 567-7999 for more information or to purchase tickets.

La Internacional Sonora Show - Porte Cochere, 8 p.m.

La Internacional Sonora Show has recorded Cumbia, Banda, Salsa, Vallenato and Reggeton music. It is a popular Los Angeles based band with a huge repertoire, appealing to individuals of many ethnic backgrounds.

Their catchy tunes have generated red-hot hits that have become chart-toppers over and over again; while the group's electrifying live performances have left a lasting impression on audiences everywhere.

In past years, they have performed in venues of all types: the Palladium, Los Angeles Sports Arena, Disneyland Resort, Nevada Hispanic Services, National Association of Hispanic Real Estate Agents, House of Blues, Monterey County Fair and the Circus Hotel.

Filabusta - Dragonfly Lounge, 8 p.m.

Filabusta is a Prescott trio consisting of Mike Kreidel (drums), Kenny James (guitar, vocals), and Lorin McLain (bass guitar). They have been playing together for over 10 years and have recruited Lorin into the fold within the last year.

"Mike and I have always spoken the same musical language," says James. "So the only question was finding the right guy on bass guitar."

Lorin fit right in.

According to Kreidel, "He rocks and that's what we wanted."

The band has been hitting stages in Jerome, Sedona, Clarkdale, Flagstaff, and the Prescott area with its distinctive brand of blues, funk and reggae which fills the dance floors. This summer, they also competed in and won Cliff Castle Casino-Hotel's Battle of the Bands at the 10th Annual Thunder Valley Rally event.
